

Structure Announcement

Sharon O'Connor is appointed Managing Director, Oasis

In her role as Merchandising Director, Sharon has been an integral member of the Oasis Executive team since 2000 and participated in the Management Buyout in 2001. In the last year she has undertaken the role of joint Managing Director of Oasis Pacific Rim, our joint venture in China. Sharon has over 20 years experience in Fashion Retail, including roles at Debenhams, Sock Shop and Miss Selfridge.

Sharon O' Connor will be appointed to the Board of Mosaic Fashions Ltd.

Jane Woolf is appointed Product Director, Oasis

Jane, a founding member of Oasis, will continue to lead the Buying function, working with Sharon O'Connor to drive the next stage of the company's growth and further develop the senior team.

Equally importantly, Jane will use her 30 years of experience to undertake a comprehensive review of the Brand's Sourcing, Trading and Supply Chain strategy, which it is anticipated will be implemented over the next 12-18 months.

Jane Woolf will report to Mosaic CEO, Derek Lovelock and will remain on the Board of Mosaic Fashions Ltd.

Nadia Jones has accepted a role working with Mosaic CEO, Derek Lovelock, on a number of strategic new developmental projects, key to the Group's future growth plans.

Lisa Taylor is appointed Design Director for Oasis

Lisa will move from Karen Millen where she has worked to establish the role of Product Development within the team. Lisa's new role will be to further define the fashionability and aspirational position of the brand and the design strategy for Oasis' growth in the future. Lisa will report to Sharon.

Derek Lovelock, CEO, commented: "These are exciting and well deserved appointments, designed to take Oasis into the next stage of its growth. They will give our largest brand the senior management strength and focus that it deserves, and rightly reflect its status in an enlarged Group structure."
